T.A. on TRANSFER

Transfer

Transfer means the movements of an employee from one headquarter station in which he is employed to another such station, either to take up the duties of a new post, or in consequence of a change of his headquarters.

Admissibility

Admissible only if the transfer is in the public interest and not at one's own request.

Transfer T.A. Entitlement

Transfer T.A. is from residence to residence and comprises the following elements:-

- i) A lumpsum transfer grant;
- ii) Actual fares for self and family for journey by rail / steamer / air;
- iii) Road mileage for journey by road;
- iv) Transfer incidentals in the form of D.A. for self and family;
- v) Packing allowance;
- vi) Cost of transportation of personal effects; and
- vii) Cost of transportation of conveyance possessed by the employee

While the grade of the employee is determined with reference to the facts on the date of his transfer, the number of fares admissible is to be determined with reference to the facts on the date of journey. No traveling allowance is admissible for any member added to the family after the date of transfer.

In addition to the above, the employee will be entitled for an additional fare by the entitled class for self for both onward and return journey, if he has to leave his family behind due to non-availability of suitable accommodation at the new place of posting.

An employee whose family does not accompany him to the new station while joining on transfer has an option to claim for him

- Either for the first journey undertaken to join the new post or
- For the journey subsequently undertaken along with family members.

Definition of Family

- Family Includes -

- (f) Such other objects as may be decided by the Board.

RECOVERIES

- 16. (1) An advance shall be recovered from the subscriber in such number of equal monthly installments as the sanctioning authority may direct; but such number shall not be less than twelve unless the subscriber so elects, or in any case more than twenty four. A subscriber may at his option make repayment in a smaller number of installments than that prescribed. Each installment shall be a number of whole rupees, the amount of the advance being raised or reduced, if necessary, to admit of the fixation of such installments.
- (2) Recoveries shall be made monthly, commencing from the first payment of a full month's salary after the advance is granted. Recovery shall not be made, excepting with the subscriber's consent, while he is on leave or in receipt of subsistence grant and may be postponed by the sanctioning authority during the recovery of an advance of pay granted to the subscriber.
- (3) If more than one advance has been made to a subscriber, each advance shall be treated separately for the purposes of recovery.
- (4) a) After the principal of the advance has been fully, repaid interest shall be paid thereon at the rate of one fifth percent (or as per any changes made by Act / Rules) or the principal for each month or broken portion of a month during the period between the drawal and the complete repayment of the principal.
- Provided that subscribers whose deposits in the Fund carry no interest shall not be required to pay with the Fund any additional installments on accounts of interest on advances granted to them from the Fund.
- b) Interest shall ordinarily be recovered in one installment in the month after complete repayment of the principal; but if the period referred to in clause (a) exceeds twenty months interest may, if the subscriber so desires, be recovered in two equal monthly installments. The method of recovery shall be that provided in sub-rule 2. Payments shall be rounded to the nearest rupee in the manner provided in sub-rule (6) of rule 12.
- (5) If an advance has been granted to a subscriber and drawn by him and the advance is subsequently disallowed before repayment is completed, the whole or balance of the amount withdrawn, shall, with interest at the rate provided in rule 12 forthwith be repaid by the subscriber to the Fund, or in default, be ordered by the Secretary to be recovered by deduction from the emoluments of the subscriber by installments or otherwise as may be directed by the authority competent to sanction an advance in writing. Provided that subscribers whose deposits in the fund carry no interest shall not be required to pay any interest.

- (6) Recoveries made under this rule shall be credited, as they are made, to the account of the subscriber in the Fund.
17. Notwithstanding any thing contained in these rules, if the sanctioning authority is satisfied that money drawn as an advance from the Fund under rule 15 or withheld or withdrawn from the Fund under clause (1) of rule 16 has been utilized for a purpose other than that for which the sanction was given to the drawal withholding or withdrawal of the money, the amount in question shall, with interest at the rate provided in rule 12 forthwith be repaid as the case may be, by the subscriber to the Provident Fund or in default, be ordered to be recovered by deduction in one sum from the pay of the subscriber, even if he be on leave. If the total amount to be paid or repaid as the case may be, by the subscriber to the Provident Fund or in default, he ordered to be recovered by deduction in one sum from the pay of the subscriber, even if he be on leave. If the total amount to be paid or repaid as the case may be, be more than half the subscriber's emoluments recoveries shall be made in monthly installments from his emoluments till the entire amount recoverable be repaid or paid, as the case may be, by him.

Provided that the subscriber, if he returns to duty, shall, if required to do so by the Institute, repay to the Fund for credit to his account, the whole or part of my amount paid to him from the Fund in pursuance of this rule, with interest thereon at the rate provided in rule 12 in cash or securities, or partly in cash and partly in securities, by installments or otherwise, by recovery from his emoluments or otherwise, as the Board may direct.

21. Subject to any deduction under rule 21, on the death of a subscriber before the amount standing to his credit has become payable, or where the amount has become payable, before payment has been made;

- i) When the subscriber leaves a family -
- ii) if a nomination made by the subscriber in accordance with the provisions of rule 8 in favour of a member or members of his family subsists the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination;
- iii) if no such nomination in favour of a member or members of the family of the family of the subscriber subsists, or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person or persons other than a member or members of his family become payable to the members of his family in equal shares:-

Provided that no share shall be payable to:-

- 1) Sons who have attained legal majority;
- 2) Sons of a deceased son who have attained legal majority;
- 3) Married daughters whose husbands are alive;
- 4) Married daughters of a deceased son whose husbands are alive, if there is any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4):

Provided also that the widow or widows and the child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal parts only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the subscriber and had been exempted from the provisions of clause (1) of the first proviso.

Note: Any sum payable under these rules to a member of the family of a subscriber vests in such manner under sub-section (2), of section 3 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925.

- ii) When the subscriber leaves no family, if a nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of rule 5, in favour of any person or persons subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.

Note: 1- When a nominee is a dependant of the subscriber as defined in clause © of section 2 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925 the amount vests in such nominee under sub-section (2) of section 3 of that Act.

Note: 2- When the subscriber leaves no family and no nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of rule 5 subsists, or if such nomination relates only to part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the relevant provisions of clause (b) and of sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925, are applicable to the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate.

DEDUCTIONS

- 22. Subject to the condition that no deduction may be made which reduces the credit by more than the amount of any contribution by the Institute, with interest thereon, credited under rules 11 and 12, before the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund is paid out of the Fund, the Chairman of the Institute may direct the deduction there from of:

- a) any amount, if a subscriber has been dismissed from the service for grave misconduct:

Provided that, if the order of dismissal is subsequently cancelled, the amount so deducted shall, on his reinstatement in the service, be replaced at his credit in the Fund; (as permitted by the Act in force at that time)

- b) any amount due under a liability incurred by the subscriber to the Institute.
- c) any amount, if a subscriber resigns his employment under the Institute within five years of the commencement thereof, otherwise than by reason of superannuation or a declaration by competent medical authority that he is unfit for further service;

- i) Institute's share should be paid in full regardless of the length of service in the event of the death of a subscriber or termination of his service by IIP otherwise than as punishment; and
- ii) The Chairman would be empowered at his discretion to sanction payment of the Institute's contribution in excess of these prescribed rates.

PAYMENT

23. (1) When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund, or the balance thereof after any deduction under rule 21, becomes payable, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, after satisfying himself, when no such deduction has been directed under that rule, that no deduction is to be made, to make payment as provided in section 4 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, (or the current Act in force)
- (2) If the person to whom, under these rules, any amount of policy is to be paid, assigned, reassigned or delivered is a lunatic for whose estate a manager has been appointed in this behalf under the Indian Innacy Act, 1912, (or current Act) the payment or re-assignment or delivery will be made to such manager, and not to the lunatic.
